Projects :

1. Website for STAFFORB LLC :
          This website contained information of an off-shore recruiting company which provides staffing solution. This website was an informative and responsive website which also contained a google map embedded to locate the company on map. It was developed using a wordpress template and hosted separately on different domain.

2. Portfolio Website :
   LINK – https://prakher.me
          This website is my portfolio website created using a responsive template which showcase all my skills and strengths and also contains my resume in it which is downloadable on a click of a button.

3. Conference Management System (Salesforce Developer Level):
          This app is created on Salesforce platform using Salesforce developer console. It provides an easy method for the event management person to manage the requirements such as session, speakers, hotels etc. Visualforce page is used to create the layout and a trigger is also implemented using Email Manager Classs to auto-send email confirmation when any booking is confirmed.
